MARYLAND ENSEMBLE THEATRE'S MET-X PRESENTS SEEMLESS

FREDERICK, MD (April 29, 2014) - Maryland Ensemble Theatre (MET) will be presenting the international physical theatre show, SeemLess. The show was developed by BFA Physical Theatre students of Costal Carolina University while studying abroad at Accademia dell'Arte in Arezzo, Italy. It examines identity and its significance in an ever-changing world. The show investigates real world situations and stages of life, using a whimsically skewed perception of reality. SeemLess is composed of a variety of physical theatre pieces presented in an episodic structure that pose the question, "Who are we?". SeemLess will feature Karli Cole, a veteran of the MET's Ensemble School and numerous MET shows, alongside Jess Bryant and Stephen Craig.

Maryland Ensemble Theatre will present SeemLess as part of its MET-X series, created to expand the collective horizons of the MET ensemble and its audience. Performances are May 23 and 24 at 8pm (45min run time) at Maryland Ensemble Theatre (31 W Patrick St. Frederick) located in the historic FSK Hotel. Tickets are $11.50 (includes $1.50 service fee) and may be purchased by phone at (301) 694-4744, online at marylandensemble.org, or in person at the MET box office.
